

I've been a licensed amateur radio operator for 40 years. It has been a good hobby, one that has helped me greatly in my professional work as an engineer. To think that BPL will not interfere with HF communications is just plain ignorance. There are so many other broadband options, BPL should be outlawed - not encouraged.